RESUME CHECKLIST

A final quality check before you apply

Practical guidance • Clear steps • Honest representation

Use this checklist before sending a resume. Employer instructions take precedence over general recommendations.

Contact and profile

- Name and preferred professional contact details are correct.
- Email address and phone number are current and appropriate.
- Profile summary is concise and relevant to the target role.

Content and evidence

- Education, employment and project dates are accurate.
- Bullets explain contributions and outcomes without exaggeration.
- Skills, certifications and languages are represented honestly.
- No confidential employer, client or personal information is disclosed.

Layout and file

- Headings, fonts, spacing and bullet styles are consistent.
- The document is readable on a phone and desktop.
- Spelling, grammar, links and page breaks have been checked.
- The filename is professional and the requested file format is used.

Submission

- Resume is tailored to the job description.
- Required questions and supporting documents are complete.
- The correct version is attached to the application.
- A copy of the submission and job details is saved securely.

Key takeaways

- Check every statement for accuracy.
- Use the employer's requested file format.

- Keep a private master copy and tailor a separate application copy.
