MEDORBITS • CAREER RESOURCES

WORKPLACE ETIQUETTE GUIDE

Build respectful and dependable professional habits

Practical guidance • Clear steps • Honest representation

A general guide to workplace conduct. Specific expectations differ by organization, role, location and working arrangement.

1. Be reliable

- Arrive prepared and meet agreed deadlines.
- Tell the relevant person promptly when plans or timelines change.
- Follow attendance, security and communication policies.

2. Respect colleagues

- Treat people professionally across roles and backgrounds.
- Respect personal boundaries, names, pronouns and differences.
- Give credit for others' contributions and address conflict constructively.

3. Work responsibly

- Ask questions when expectations are unclear.
- Accept feedback without becoming defensive and agree on practical next steps.
- Use company equipment, data and communication channels appropriately.

4. Practise meeting etiquette

- Review the agenda or materials when available.
- Join on time, contribute constructively and avoid unnecessary interruptions.
- Record decisions and action items where appropriate.

5. Maintain digital professionalism

- Check recipients and tone before sending messages.
- Avoid sharing confidential work material in unauthorized channels.
- Follow policies for social media, devices and information security.

Key takeaways

- Reliability, respect and clear communication matter.

- Learn local team norms without compromising safety or integrity.
- Follow formal policies when they differ from general advice.

Important: This is general career-development information, not a guarantee of employment or a substitute for employer-specific instructions or qualified legal advice. Verify role-specific and location-specific requirements independently.

MedOrbits • Career resource. Review the employer's instructions and adapt this material to your circumstances.