BDS Fee Guide

Cost-planning guidance for dental undergraduate programmes.

Resource category: Fee Guides	Format: Printable guidance PDF

Guide

Use this guide as a planning framework. Requirements differ by institution, programme, country, applicant category, and intake. Keep a record of the official source and the date you checked it.

Verify official details

- Confirm the programme, campus, intake, and current recognition status.
- Check the latest official prospectus and applicable admission or counselling notices.
- Verify fee category and any differences by institution type or applicant category.

Potential charges

- Tuition and institutional fees
- Clinical, laboratory, instrument, material, and sterilisation-related costs where applicable
- Examination, registration, uniforms, books, and professional requirements
- Accommodation, meals, transport, and personal expenses

Before commitment

- Ask for a full course-duration estimate, not only first-year tuition.
- Read deposit, withdrawal, and refund terms.
- Confirm all payment instructions through official channels.
