Management Fee Guide

Understand fees and associated costs for management education.

Resource category: Fee Guides	Format: Printable guidance PDF

Guide

Use this guide as a planning framework. Requirements differ by institution, programme, country, applicant category, and intake. Keep a record of the official source and the date you checked it.

Compare programme types

- Confirm whether the programme is undergraduate, postgraduate, executive, or another format.
- Review duration, delivery mode, campus, and current recognition or approval status.
- Check whether advertised fees include all compulsory components.

Cost components

- Tuition, registration, examination, and student activity fees
- Learning materials, software, projects, field visits, and international modules if applicable
- Accommodation, travel, meals, and other living costs

Return and funding research

- Compare curriculum and transparent outcomes rather than relying on placement promises.
- Review scholarship, loan, instalment, and refund conditions.
- Ask for written clarification of every additional charge.
